ERIC LEHMANN

FULL STACK WEB DEVELOPER
JUNIOR

PROFILE

Full Stack Web Developer specialized in the PERN stack: PostgreSQL, Express, React, Node.js.
I led the development of a second-hand items marketplace called Juira.
With over 10 years of work experience as a salesman and account executive, I acquired a toolset that includes interpersonal skills, communication and customer-driven strategies.

PROJECTS

JUIRA Marketplace

I designed and developed with a team a functional second-hand items marketplace. We implemented technologies such as React, Redux, Express, Node.js, PostgreSQL and other complementary frameworks.
